RESOLUTION #22-11-16-001 HONORING BARBARA POOLE

WHEREAS, in 1978, Barbara Poole and her husband Harold, opened the town's only funeral service; and

WHEREAS, the model of L. Harold Poole Funeral Home was founded based upon Understanding Other's Needs; and

WHEREAS, Barbara Poole has dedicated over 40 years to assisting Knightdale families through end-of-life comfort; and

WHEREAS, Barbara Poole has supported the Knightdale community by serving in numerous civic organizations, such as the Knightdale Chamber of Commerce, Wake County Fire Commission, and Eastern Wake Fire Department Board of Directors, just to name a few; and

WHEREAS, Barbara Poole was recognized as Citizen of the Year by the Knightdale Chamber of Commerce in 2017 and as a Mayor's Commitment to Community award recipient in 2019; and

WHEREAS, Barbara Poole has always supported the public safety and veteran communities in Knightdale; and

WHEREAS, Barbara Poole has been a tireless advocate for worthy candidates to be inscribed on the Knightdale Veterans Memorial, with the goal of honoring as many veterans as possible; and

WHEREAS, the Town wishes to acknowledge and express its appreciation to Barbara Poole for her many years of service, devotion, and dedication to the Town of Knightdale.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that I, Jessica Day, Mayor of Knightdale, and the Knightdale Town Council, do hereby recognize and express our sincerest appreciation to Barbara Poole and thank her for her continuous support of local veterans and the Knightdale Veterans Memorial.

This the 16th day of November, 2022.
